

I do not want to see the New Jersey "Do Not Call" law repealed or weakened. It is a blessing not to have someone calling during dinner or first thing in the morning or late at night. For once let the citizens have some peace in their homes from unwanted or unsolicited calls.